

The Account Manager, Corporate Partnerships position is responsible for the overall management of assigned, existing corporate partnerships including: the development of new revenue opportunities, delivering bold and innovative marketing concepts and strategies that achieve partner objectives, and the creation of mutually beneficial market activation programs.