Program Summary

We are looking for a passionate, motivated Video Fellow to join the team! The Fellowship Program is intended to provide diverse recent graduates with a 4-month educational experience in modern digital media, as it pertains to video editing and producing. This training program will give Fellows the opportunity to work within three different teams and utilize their video editing and production skills.

By the end of the program, Fellows should have all the tools necessary to confidently apply their skills in the digital media world. Additionally, Fellows will be assigned a large final capstone project to work on throughout the program. This project will be submitted towards the end of their assignment and can be used as a foundational piece of their content portfolio post-program.

This position is 100% remote and can be completed from anywhere in the United States!
