Job Description

Notre Dame Athletics develops and challenges each student-athlete to pursue excellence and serve as a force for good in the world. Our vision is to lead collegiate athletics by defining the integrated student-athlete experience and forming champions. To do this, we are eager to attract, recruit, develop and retain individuals who positively contribute to a collaborative, connected culture where all may thrive.

The University of Notre Dame is more than a breathtaking campus — our strong community, long-standing tradition of excellence, and ability to offer innovative resources and opportunities underscores our #1 ranking on the Forbes Best Large Employer list.

As a prospective member of Notre Dame Athletics, we invite you to apply if you have a shared purpose for our distinctly integrated student-athlete experience, an unrivaled passion for people who propel a dynamic and high performing organization, and a proven record of success in your field.

Join one of the most dynamic storytelling teams in collegiate athletics as a Producer, Featured Content with Notre Dame Athletics. As a key creative contributor within the award-winning Fighting Irish Media (FIM) Department, you'll help bring powerful stories to life through long-form and feature-style video content that celebrates student-athletes, inspires fans, and drives engagement.

Reporting to the Assistant Athletics Director for Production, this role offers a rare opportunity to serve as a primary shooter and producer for the Notre Dame Football follow documentary Here Come The Irish, airing on Peacock. You'll be embedded in on-location production, shaping compelling narratives and supporting the day-to-day creative execution of a nationally visible project.

Beyond football, you'll produce and edit original feature content across all 26 varsity sports - crafting meaningful storytelling pieces that elevate student-athletes, support partners, and create future revenue opportunities. This is a hands-on creative role where your work will be seen, felt, and celebrated across platforms.

You'll also collaborate closely with the production team to maintain and organize non-live event production equipment, including cameras, lighting, audio gear, and related tools - helping ensure every shoot is set up for success.

If you thrive in fast-paced environments, love visual storytelling, and want to make an impact at one of the most storied athletic programs in the country, this is an incredible opportunity to grow your craft and be part of something special.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree required
- 3+ years of college/professional/network video/content production, preferably working with long-form content
- Ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously with strong organizational and time-management skills
- Ability to consistently meet strict deadlines
- Availability to work nights, weekends, and holidays as required, including all home football games and select events for other sports
- Expert level knowledge in all aspects of video production; including but not limited to, ENG camera operation, Adobe Suite (special emphasis on Premiere Pro & After Effects), lighting, audio, and staging

Additional Information

Salary: Up to $70,000

Applications will be accepted through March 3, 2026

To be considered for this position, a resume and a Reel/Website are required. Please add in the attachments section of your application.

The University of Notre Dame seeks to attract, develop, and retain the highest quality faculty, staff and administration. The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, disability, veteran status, genetic information, or age in employment.

Moreover, Notre Dame prohibits discrimination against veterans or disabled qualified individuals, and complies with 41 CFR 60-741.5(a) and 41 CFR 60-300.5(a). We strongly encourage applications from candidates attracted to a university with a Catholic identity.
